

TRAVEL SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION SHEET

The IIC Perth will award a limited number of travel scholarships to delegates who are Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander, or from a low- or middle-income country for participation in the clinical training course.

The travel scholarship consists of:

- Registration
- Accommodation (up to 3 nights at Trinity on Hampden)
- Reimbursement of travel expenses up to a predetermined amount based on geographical location of awardee. Reimbursement will be made after the training course.

DEADLINE

9 June 2019, 7:00pm AWST

WHO CAN APPLY

The travel scholarship will be awarded to selected applicants who fulfill the following criteria:

- Completed a medical degree
- Currently enrolled in a clinical training program, a PhD candidature, or have ≤ 5 years of experience as a clinical consultant in a relevant discipline (i.e. Paediatrics; Infectious Diseases; Immunology; Paediatric Infectious Diseases; General Practice in a rural/developing country setting)
- Be Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander, or from a low- or middle-income country:
<http://data.worldbank.org/income-level/low-income>
<http://data.worldbank.org/income-level/lower-middle-income>
<http://data.worldbank.org/income-level/upper-middle-income>

HOW TO APPLY

Submit the following documents to IICPerth@telethonkids.org.au before 9 June 2019:

- Completed application form
- A copy of applicant's current curriculum vitae
- A signed letter of recommendation from applicant's head of school/supervisor

Awardees will be selected from all applicants fulfilling above eligibility criteria based on having the most competitive track records, showing they are the most promising and talented young clinicians who are or will be taking care of children with infectious diseases.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Successful applicants will be notified on 28 June 2019.

Applicants who are not successful will be offered the opportunity to register online against the early bird registration fees.

CONTACT

For questions on this travel scholarship, the 2019 IIC Perth and to submit your application, send an email to IICPerth@telethonkids.org.au.